AN EX GUERRILLA'S SERMON. - The Primitive Baptist Meeting House on Fairfax street, between King and Prices, was unusually well filled yesterday morning to hear a sermon preached by Elder E. V. White, formerly Col. Lige White, the famous Confederate guerrill chieftain, who has recently become a preacher. Save a bullet sear on his right cheek the E'der presented none of the marks that are usually supposed to distinguish a man who has passed through such stirring times as have fallen to his lot, though the short, silvery gray hair, the comparatively thin, straw colored moustach, that terminates in an imperial of the same character, and a dreamy, glazy, grayish blue eye, that, however, occasionally flashed with the brilliancy of an eagle's, might have shown, to a keen observer, that beneath all that placed exterior there burned a spirit which, though under the complete subjection of his will, could readily account for all the gallant feats that are told or him. The discourse was really an excellent one, and presented the peculiar tenet of the church to which the Elder belongs-that having once obtained grace it can not be lost, and that sins committed in that state serve but to remind men of their unworthiness and bring them back to God-in its most favorable light. He closed his remarks by an adverse criticism upon the so called christianity that had caused the late civil war in this country, and the more recent Russo Turkish war and all their terrible sufferings. He held the undivided attention

FORT FOOTE. -- The abandonment of Fort Foct; has been begun, and on Saturday there was a sale of condemned goods. The sale of the quarters, land, &c., it is reported, will take place in about a month, when the fort will be entirely abandmed. In this connection the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette says :-

of his large audience for more than an hour, and could have held it longer had he been so disposed.

"Not long ago, it will be remembered, the President ordered the Secretary of War to detail Major Breckinridge, a cousin of Mrs. Hayes, to the arsenal at this point and send the commandant here to take his place at Fort Foote. Ever since this was done there has been much discontent in army circles, as the commandant at the arsenal was the senior of Breckingidge and entitled to the better place. Ic order to harmonize matters the Secretary of War, no doubt after consultation with the President, ordered Fort Foote to be abandoned, and the troops arrived here yesterday under

THE TOURNAMENT. - Arrangements for the tournament, to come off at the Fair grounds, on Wednesday next, are being perfected. Several parties will practice this evening, on the grounds at ball shooting, which is to be one of the sports of the day. At a meeting of the knights, who are to ride, held on Saturday evening, the following rules were adopted :-

Dr. Lewis and R. H. Stabler rendered | tion for President and Directors same day and the necessary surgical assistance, and the boy is now deing well.

A well known character about town, called "Spanish Jack," died at the Alms House one day last week.

YESTERDAY.-The weather yesterday was delightful, and the attendance at the various churches was good. The services at the M. E. church were conducted by Rev. Mr. Harrison, Schrs Howard Williams, Hobeken; W. D. the evangelist, during the day. At night, Rev. Marvel and A. M. Bird, Boston; J. A. Bieker- K. Nelson preached in Christ church. Rev. man, Providence, and H. T. Hedges, Fail River, E. V. White preached at the Old School Baptist meeting house on Fairfax street. The pulpits of the other churches were occupied by the resident clergy. Large numbers of people were on the streets, many of whom had come over from Washington on the ferry boats. In the alternoon the graveyards and other suburban walks and roads were numerously attended, and there was a procession of the Sons and Daughters of Parity, a colored organization.

YACHT STOLEN AND RECOVERED.-The pleasure yacht Ocean Belie, belonging to a party of young men of this city, was boarded on Saturday night, at her berth, near the shipyard, and sailed off. Some of the owners yes K L Gross and M Sinciair, to flamp & Ealt terdar went in search of their stolen property, Coal Co; W Mottett and M Mack, to New Cen- and this morning a dispatch was received from Quantice, stating that the yacht was at Quantico wharf, and the men in her were held there to await the arrival of properly authorized persors to take them in charge. Mr. Clay Thompson, one of the owners of the vessel, accom panied by Officer Bettis, went down to Quantico to day to recover the yacht and bring the prisoners here for trial.

Suspension Bridge, -Messrs. G. R. The tridge tion, Wooden and Zine Wash Boards, Fireside is suspended from the third stories of the two buildings, made fast to the joists, is capable of sustaining a weight of several tone, and is a most complete contrivance.
